Wall Street Blockchain Alliance Welcomes Cohen & Co as Newest Corporate Member

New York, NY – July 28, 2025 – The Wall Street Blockchain Alliance (WSBA), a leading non-profit trade association promoting the adoption of blockchain technology and cryptoassets across global markets, is proud to announce that Cohen & Co has joined as its newest corporate member.

"We are excited to welcome Cohen & Co to the WSBA community," said Ron Quaranta, Chairman of the Wall Street Blockchain Alliance. "Cohen & Co has earned a stellar reputation for its national leadership in digital asset assurance, tax, and advisory work, particularly in areas related to DeFi, digital asset ETF issuers, and tokenized investment companies. Their commitment to professional excellence and innovation aligns perfectly with our mission to advance the responsible adoption of blockchain technology and cryptoassets in financial markets."

"The WSBA does great work and we are excited to become a member and join their accounting, legal, and tokenization working groups," says Cohen & Co's Technology & Life Sciences Market Leader, Mike Dellavalle. "We look forward to actively contributing to the important dialogue facilitated by the WSBA and collaborating with other key industry leaders, policymakers, and stakeholders to advance this important evolution for our global financial markets."
