

Aprio Joins Wall Street Blockchain Alliance

Leading CPA-led business advisory firm is latest to join WSBA as corporate member

New York, New York (January 23, 2018) – The Wall Street Blockchain Alliance (WSBA), an industry leading non-profit trade association with a mission to guide and promote comprehensive adoption of blockchain technology across global markets, is proud to announce that Aprio, LLP, has joined the organization as a corporate member.

Aprio is a nationally-recognized, CPA-led business advisory firm, delivering advisory, assurance, tax, cloud accounting, privacy and security, and private client services to build value, drive growth, manage risk and protect wealth. The firm also offers risk advisory, forensic litigation, tax planning services, business valuations and more. Aprio focuses on the technology, blockchain, retail, real estate and manufacturing sectors.

“WSBA is a leader in the promotion of blockchain and distributed ledger technology and we are excited to be the organization’s newest member,” said Mitchell Kopelman, partner-in-charge of the Technology and Blockchain group at Aprio. “This partnership will enable us to help a greater number of businesses using blockchain or distributed ledger technologies to better manage the complexities of their tax, financial reporting and supply chain.”

Ron Quaranta, Chairman of the WSBA commented: “We are very happy to have Aprio join the family of WSBA corporate members. As a premier firm at the intersection of tax, accounting, cryptoassets and blockchain, their expertise will be integral in advancing blockchain and cryptoassets for the global accounting profession.”
